Lakeland, FL (PRWeb) October 15, 2006 -- Dr. Raleigh Washington, President of The Road to Jerusalem, will be appearing with Paul Wilbur on Saturday, November 4, 2006, at 7 P.M. The event will be held at Southeastern University's Bush Chapel in Lakeland, Florida. This night is free and open to the public.

Washington, who is the former Vice President of Reconciliation for Promise Keepers, is an internationally known pastor and speaker. He became President and Chief Executive Officer of The Road to Jerusalem in 2004.

The internationally known and multi-lingual Paul Wilbur sings in English, Spanish, Hebrew, and Portuguese and is currently working on an album in Russian. He has done a CD/DVD specifically for Washington's Group with other leading Messianic Artists called "The Road to Jerusalem." It is produced by Galilee of the Nations and features Messianic worship.

The purpose of Washington's group, The Road to Jerusalem, is to encourage Gentile believers in Yeshua (Jesus) to embrace the Messianic Jewish community. The organization envisions that both groups will be strengthened as they celebrate Christianity's Hebraic roots and love for Israel.

Shoresh David Messianic Synagogue of Lakeland is sponsoring this event.
